12. Mr. E. H. Kealy, I. C. S., Superintendent Census Operations, Rajputana and Ajmer-Merwara visited Bundi on the 20th November 1910 with a view to examining the working of the Census Operations of the State which were in progress at that time. He expressed his satisfaction with the work that was being done.

His Highness, health.

It is with much regret to note here that His Highness the Maharao Raja Sahib Bahadur fell seriously ill in the month of June 1911 and the illness assumed very alarming proportions - so much so - that Major D. Vere Condon, Agency Surgeon, Haraoti & Tonk, was at once put in charge of the treatment of the case and it is gratifying to say that under the careful and skilful treatment of Major Condon, His Highness recovered his health for which Darbar's most grateful thanks are due to Major Condon. The Darbar at the same time do not forget to tender their thanks to the Hon'ble Mr. E. C. Colvin, Agent to the Governor General in Rajputana and Major H. B. Peacock Political Agent, Haraoti and Tonk, for the valuable advice and substantial help given by them on the occasion.

Obituary.

14. His Highness the Maharao Raja Sahib Bahadur suffered a great loss by the untimely demise of his brother-in-law His Highness Maharaja Sir Sirdar Singhji Bahadur of Jodhpur who died on the 20th March 1911.

Important events.

15. His Most Gracious Majesty the King Emperor expressed an intention of holding a Darbar at Delhi in honour of his Coronation and arrangements were therefore taken in hand for the purpose.

Donations.

16. His Highness the Maharao Raja Sahib Bahadur was pleased to make the following donations during the year under report :-

1. Rs. 5,000/- towards All India King Edward Memorial Fund.
2. Rs. 5,000/- towards Rajputana Provincial King Edward Memorial Fund.
3. Rs. 1,000/- towards Lord Minto Memorial Fund Calcutta.
4. Rs. 1,000/- towards All India Minto Memorial Park and Proclamation Pillar at Allahabad.

Political relations.

17. The relations between the Darbar and the Supreme Government have been of the same cordial and friendly nature as ever, and the Darbar acknowledge with great gratitude the assistance and advice received at the hands of the Government and its officers.

18. During the year under report the Hon'ble Mr. E. G. Colvin, C. S. I., continued to hold the office of the Agent Governor General in Rajputana throughout the year.

Major A. B. Drummond held the office of the Political Agent, Haraoti & Tonk, upto 1st March 1911 when the charge of that high office was taken by Major H. B. Peacock, who is still holding the office.

All these officers evinced deep interest in the welfare of the State and did all in their power to help it. The State tenders its grateful thanks to them.

High Officials.

19. The names of high officials as also the changes effected in the personnel during the year under report are embodied in Appendix T herewith attached.

CHAPTER II.

Revenue.

20 Babu Randhir Singhji, B. A. continued to supervise the working of the Revenue Department in addition to his duties as Revenue and Finance Member.

21. The rates of assessment fixed in 1878 remain unchanged and there has been no land revenue settlement during the year under report.

23. Like past years this year too certain measures were adopted and special officers deputed to look after the condition of the land and the agriculturists and to extend cultivation and to bring the waste land under cultivation. Necessary concessions were also granted in this respect and as a result of this method some improvement has been made in the land revenue as will appear from the following figures:-

			Land Revenue.
Samvat 1966	Rs	5,50,393	0 0
Samvat 1967	Rs	5,61,656	0 0

CHAPTER III.

Legislation.

The State has its own codification for the guidance of its judiciary based on Hindu Dharam Shastras, customs of the country and the general spirits of the code in force in British India.

Appendix II showing laws in force in the State is attached herewith.

As foreshadowed in para 30 of the report of the last year, no instance of any disloyalty or dissatisfaction to the Supreme Government came to the notice of the Darbar and so there was no need of the adoption of further methods in this respect.

Military Force.

There has been no variation in the number of the forces maintained in the State during the year under report as compared with the figures of the previous year as will appear from Appendix III attached herewith.

Below is given the expenditure incurred in connection with the Military forces of the State:-

Samvat 1966	...	Rs 1,07,979 0 0

Decrease 162 . 0 0

The Military Force maintained in the State are employed in furnishing escort, guards of honour in State processions and ceremonials and for the Military purposes according to necessity.

The Infantry are armed with Smooth-bore Muzzle loading Musket^E and bayonets, the Cavalry with Smooth-bore Muzzle loading Carbines, swords and lances and the Artillery-men with swords.

Police.

M. Vazir Mohemmed continued to hold office of the Superintendent of Police throughout the year.

The Police are divided into two sections (1) City Police (2) District Police. The City Police keeps a watch over bad characters, guards and maintains order in the city while the District Police which is composed of 14 Thanas (Police stations) is responsible for guarding communications, affording protection to travellers and keeping peace and order in the mofussil.

Appendix IV showing strength, cost of discipline and education of the District and the City Police maintained by the State during the year under report is herewith attached.

The ratio of the Police to area and population of the State comes to one Police-man for 3.90 square miles and for 411.9 persons.

Criminal Justice.

Below are noted the names of the various courts by means of which criminal justice is administered in the State:-

1. Council (Judicial Branch).

2. Foujdari court at Bundi.
3. Kotwali at Bundi.
4. Pargana Courts.
5. Fort Courts.

34. Appendices VIII and IX herewith attached show the working of the different criminal courts mentioned above.

Civil Justice.

35 The Appendices X, XI and XII show names and working of the various courts through which civil justice is administered in the State.

36. The working of these courts has been satisfactory and thus their constitution remains quite unaltered.

Extradition.

37. The following figures show the number of criminals surrendered to and received during the year under report:-

Name of State.	No of criminals.
	Received from.	Surrendered to
Jaipur State ...	1	...
Bombay ...	1	...
	<hr/> Total 2	<hr/> ...

38. In all 2 persons were received during the year under review of whom one was from British District.

39. No particular difficulty was experienced in the matter of extradition for want of reciprocity on the part of any State.

40. Rules of Extradition framed by Colonel Wyllie were observed for a major portion of the year under review between the States of Tonk and Bundi, as agreed upon by the both States, for one year as a trial but as there happened no case necessitating the application of those rules, the utility of the same could not be known.

Prison-

41. There is only one Central Jail at Bundi which stands in a healthy locality one mile off on the southern outskirts of the city.

42. It contains two separate wards, one for males and the other for females and is commodious and well-ventilated, capable of holding 149 persons at the rate of 648 cubic feet for each man.

43. The Jail was not inspected by any officer of the Government during the year under review.

44. The health and character of prisoners remained satisfactory throughout the year.

45. There has been no mortality among the jail population nor has there been any complaint of ill-treatment or transgression of Jail rules or insubordination.

46. The management of the Jail is conducted under the management of the Foreign Member of the State Council.

47. Appendix XIII showing information with regard to prisoners in the Jail and Kotwali look-up is herewith attached.

48. The number of persons treated in the Hospital attached to the Jail and Kotwali is shown in Appendix XXIII attached herewith.

Registration.

49. The total number of documents registered this year comes to 10 against 6 of the last year.

50. Appendix XIV and XV attached herewith will show the value ect. of the documents as well as the revenue derived and expenditures incurred under this head during the year under report.

Municipality.

51. The sanitation of the town is being looked after in the usual manner by the official in-charge of Safai and the details of expenditures and receipts under this head have been shown in Appendix XVI, herewith attached.

CHAPTER IV.

Rainfall, weather and crop.

52. The monsoon of Samvat 1967 broke in time, commencing on 23rd July 1910 and continued till 2nd October 1910. The rainfall recorded at the capital throughout the year amounted to 23 inches and 62 cents. It was general and well distributed throughout the State, though below normal, and both the crops yielded a good outturn.

53. Samvat 1967 may therefore be called to be a fairly good year.

54. The price of food-grains remained normal vide Appendix XVIII herewith attached.

Wages and labour.

55 The rates of wages remain unchanged and the labour is getting scarcer day by day.

The following are the rates of wages :-

Blacksmith	6	annas	per	day
Carpenter	6	"	"	"
Cooly	4	"	"	"

56. The following figures show the receipts and expenditures of the Forest Department of the State during the year under report :-

		Income.		Expenditure.
Samvat 1966	...	22,580	...	4,390
Samvat 1967	...	23,865	...	3,730

57. There being sufficient grass-producing area in the State no special measures were undertaken to extend it, only instructions were issued to all concerned as usual from time to time urging upon them the advisability of storing surplus fodder and grass as a safeguard against years of scarcity and it is satisfactory to note that the instructions are acted upon.

Trade & Manufacture.

58. The condition of the trade, in general, will be indicated by the figures of the Customs Department.

59. Samvat 1967 being a fairly good year there was an increase of Rs-13,888/- in the Customs revenue of the State during the year under review as the following figures will show :-

Samvat 1966	2,37,597
" 1967	2,51,485
						<hr/>

64 The income derived from the tanks of Neth and Takla during the year under report is given below:-

Neth Tank	Rs 450-15-6
Takla Tank	Rs 126-15-6
					Total Rs 577-15-0

Post Office.

65. There is only one Government combined Post and Telegraph Office at the capital. The State has its own Postal arrangements.

66. The mail intended for the district is sent by means of State runners to the various Nizamats where the postal work is disposed of by the Nizamat authorities notably by the Moharrirs in addition to their own duties.

Mint.

67. The Mint remained closed during the year under report.

General condition of the State and the People.

68. The general condition of the State and the people has been good. Consequent upon the continued good harvests of the past several years, financial condition of the people is improving and the agriculturists are also reaping good harvests.

69. Appendix XX showing agricultural stock extant in the State is herewith attached from which it will be seen that the number of cattle is fast increasing which fact augurs well, for the State in general and the agricultural population in particular, for future.

CHAPTER V.

Revenue and Finance.

70. Babu Randhir Singhji, B. A. continued throughout the year to be in charge of the revenue and finance work of the State. The financial position of the State is steadily improving as will be observed from the under-noted figures :-

					Income.
Samvat 1966	8,86,537/-
Samvat 1967	9,14,314/-
					Increase Rs- 27,777/-

71. The increase is due to good management and prosperous and good harvest.

72. The arrears of revenue outstanding including all realizable assets amount to Rs- 2,52,265/- which can be expected to be realized if good years follow.

73. Appendix XXII herewith attached shows the revenue and expenditure of the State during the year under report.

CHAPTER VI.

Medical.

74. Sub Assistant Surgeon Kundan Lal held charge of the Hospital at Bundi throughout the whole year who performed his duties satisfactorily.

75. Appendix XXIII herewith attached shows the working of the Hospital during the year under report.

Health.

76. The general health of the people of the State remained good throughout the year and fortunately the State was quite free from epidemic diseases.

Vitality.

77. Appendix XXIV showing births and deaths recorded during the year under report is herewith attached.

Vaccination.

78. The Sub-joined table shows the vaccination-work of the State during the year under report :-

Sumvat	Total Number of Children Vaccinated.			Successful Cases			Unsuccessful Cases			Remarks

CHAPTER VII.

Education.

79. Pt. Brij Mohan Lal, B.A., continued to hold charge of the Education Department throughout the year.

80. Appendix XXV herewith attached shows particulars regarding schools maintained in the State during the year under review.

81. The two sons of the Jagirdar of Jaitgarh in Bundi continued to study at the Mayo College, Ajmer. The report from the Principal of that institution shows that they are making satisfactory progress in their studies and have behaved thoroughly well.

CHAPTER VIII.

Criminal Tribes.

82. The under-mentioned statement gives the No. of Kanjars settled in the Bundi state:-

Men.	Women	Boys.	Girls	Total	Remarks.
4	7	6	10	27

83. 160 Bighas of land allotted to them previously is still in their possession but owing to their habitual disinclination to take to cultivation very little of the land was brought under cultivation by them during the year under report.

84. Every possible effort is being made to reclaim them and to induce them to cultivate.

Printing Press.

85. There is one printing press which turns out work equal to the demand of

86. The following table shows the receipts and expenditures under this head during the year under report :-
